MR. BOODY'S MINUTES

Judge Moore Decides in Favor of Brooklyn's Mayor.

He May Examine and Copy the Grand Jury Secrets.

If He Takes the Responsibility May Story Told of His Political Battle She Tells of Her Plans for the Supervisor Ferguson Reigns as a Boat Quickly Lowered, but He Did Publish Them.

After taking six days to consider the examine and copy the minutes of the June Grand Jury, which in its presentment charged him with malfeasance in order on the application has as yet been made, nor will there be until the Mayor's lawyer and the District-Attorney get together and decide upon its language. That may take several days, and then the minutes will be "Nothing," said Judge Moore, "that meeting with any serious opposition until about ten years ago. At that time John Y. McKane was given out, nor will the sayings or doings of any one, nor the opinion of anybody as expressed in the Grand Jury room, be given out; nothing but the testimony fiself."

It will be seen from this that not seen District-Attorney Ridgway's interpretation of the law, which the Grand Jurors in their presentment said presentation for the responsible for the research of them from finding indicates.

the public at large has a right to know cerns the whole community much more than the individual. If the Mayor is a criminal, as charged, the public mus know the extent of his crimes, and he the charges made, it must be remembered, are of the gravest character, and much publication has been given to them. It is right that he should be entitled to prove their faisity, if they are false. I have no doubt whatever as to church. my powers in this matter, and have,

would be given out, even to the side morning from injuries received at the remarks of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of Hermann Hegerdon and Joseph of the Assistant District-Attor-hands of spelled, and the public must look elsewhere for the whole story.

interested parties may expect. There are several Grand Jurors who are anxious to complete the chain of circumdence, and to supply missing links here and there. It is contended that Judge Moore's decision removes all pledges of secrecy, and that every Grand Juror will now be at liberty to talk as much

Judge Moore also stated that he had never heard a case in which there was so much provocation for the Mayor's as well as such good grounds for granting it.

BIT MURPHY'S THUMB.

Tighthing's Joke Wesn't Annyacisted and a Scrap Resulted. George Lightbine, of 520 Flushing aveaus, was held in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day, on a charge of Lighthine called on John Murphy, of 548 Flushing avenue, last night, and while joking asked permission of Murphy to dance with his wife.

Murphy did not see the joke, and hurled a mortar pail at Lightbine, who then jumped forward and bit Murphy's left thumb to the bone.

BROOKLYN NEW

Old and Valued Employee.

with John Y. McKane.

Edward B. Cadley, chief clerk to the matter, Judge Moore, in the Brooklyn Kings County Board of Supervisors, died remark that Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher Court of Sessions, this morning, an- at his home, 112 St. Felix street, Brook- was impoverished, and that she would application for permission to a brief illness, of Bright's disease.

The attending physician had hoped for ment charged him with mattenance in the attending physician did not be began to sink rapidly.

No order on the application has as Mr. Cadley had lived in Brooklyn all was at the time of Mr. Beecher's death.

13, 1832, but subsequently his family re-

Jurors in their presentment said prewented them from finding indictments, becomes public property. Neither will there be any description of the scene of pandemonium which took place when Lawyer Gaynor refused to answer the questions of Assistant District-Attorney Callaghan.
"If the Mayor," said Judge Moore, "has, while in office, been guilty of any offense to warrant such a presentment,

SPIRIT OF 1208, OR FRUMENTI? Barbara Brown's "Control" Inter

ferred with a Church Service. Barbara Brown, a well-dressed woman "It is true," he went on, "that in this tase no indictment had been found, and that the Mayor, when making the application was not in the position of an article and the continuous suspended sentence."

It is true," he went on, "that in this immediate, on a charge of intoxication, She says she loves to travel, and is never more comfortable than when on Justice Goetting suspended sentence. People's German Church, Ellery street and requestion on the forful," cried Mrs.

"Be joyful, oh, be joyful," cried Mrs.
Brown; "for I intend to be with you almy powers in this matter, and have, therefore, no hesitation in reaching the conclusion that the application should be granted.

"I want it clearly understood, however, that while he is at liberty to inspect the minutes he must copy nothing but the testimony, nor shall he take cognizance of the opinions or hearsay evidence of any one given in the Grand Jury room. I have not prepared a written decision, but make this statement 1.208."

"Be loyful, oh, be joyful," cried Mrs. Brown; "for I intend to be with you always. Let us pray.

"Be loyful, oh, be joyful," cried Mrs. Brown; "for I intend to be with you always. Let us pray.

As this course did not neet with the approval of the congregation Policeman Bonner was called in, and, after a struggle, removed the woman to the Vernon Avenue Police Station, where a charge of intoxication was preferred against her. In court this morning Mrs. Brown; "for I intend to be with you always. Let us pray.

As this course did not neet with the approval of the congregation Policeman Bonner was called in, and, after a struggle, removed the woman to the Vernon Avenue Police Station, where a charge of intoxication was preferred against her. In court this morning Mrs. Brown acted like a mild maniac, claiming that she had acted in a perfectly proper manner, "because," she explained, "on the 6th of intended to be with you always. Let twenty-three years of age, of 30 Main street, who stabbed Michael Moria, aged seventeen, yesterday afternoon.

Forone Stabbed His Boothlast Pivel

The young men had a heatel argument about their boot-blacking abilities, and while Moria was attending to a customer at his stand on Tillary street, Horona stabbed him with an ice pick in the neck. Moria's injuries are not serious.

Died on Her Decratep. At an early hour this morning Mrs. Deposed Upon at Chicago.

Summer.

An impression created by a half toking remain in Brooklyn this Summer for ten days ago while on his way home. her home, 40 Orange street, this morning. "I am not a millionaire." Mrs. Beecher his life, and had always been promi"To-day I am going to Summit, N. J., nently identified with the Democratic where my son, William C. Beecher, lives. "To-day I am going to Summit, N. J., politics of the county.

I shall spend a few days there and then He was born in the Second Ward May visit my daughter, Mrs. Scoville, of Stamford. Then I am going to Bridgemoved to the Eleventh Ward, where he port, where Mrs. James Bullard, my public, as the Judge distinctly points out that no application to that effect had been made to him.

If the public labors under the impression, however, that it is going to find out all that transpired in the Grand Jury room, it is very much mistaken. Nothing whatever will be given out save the evidence itself—that is, the "legal" evidence as defined by the District-Attorney.

"Nothing," said Judge Moore, "that anybody testified they had heard will be given out, nor will the sayings or doings of any one, nor the angles of any on mentioned I may come home for a few age.

The programme does not differ very much from what I have done every summer since Mr. Beecher's death.

The lady to whom I spoke, as quoted in The World' tais morning, has been to Caicago, and she tells me that the expense of staying there is very great.

It is 25 cents for a seat in a comfort able room, and almost every libert's in taxed—35 cents for this thing. 10 for that and 66 for something else. I would not care to spend my money in that way even if I were rich, or to endure the discomfort it would entail.

"Beecher should, pointing out of a window," and not far away is the home where Mr. Beecher and I spent so the many pleasant years.

"A great many people who knew or admired him call on me, and most of them are foreigners. The number has about seventy persons from England called after attending services at Pierre, and Mr. Beecher and I spent so me and Mr. Beecher and I spent so me and Mr. Beecher solicure, and in the same way, and yesterday I had a little recenties.

"At another time twenty-five called in the same way, and yesterday I had a little recenties.

"At another time twenty-five called in the same way, and yesterday I had a number of English clergymen to dinner, afterwards conducting them to see him and Mr. Beecher wood.

"I do not wish to give their names," The Mayor Boody says it is a friendly suit, brought to settle the question forever.

Summer and Mr. Beecher and I spent so the money granted to the Inebritate Home, the spends of the money granted to the Inebritate Home, the spends of the money granted to the Inebritate Home, the spends of the money granted to the Inebritate Home finds its way to the coffers of certain officials, whose mames are jealmonth of the money granted to the Inebritate Home finds its way to the coffers of certain officials, whose mames are jealmonth of the money granted to the Inebritate Home finds its way to the coffers of certain officials, whose mames are jealmonth of the money granted to the Inebritate Home finds its way tims in Brooklyn. The Central Office detectives of Brook lyn are trying to find two clever swind lers who have succeeded in victimizing a number of druggists by an old game which, so far, has been very successful in the City of Churches.

AN OLD GAME REVIVED.

Two Druggists Are Made Hasy Vic

Druggist George Stevens, of 600 Sixth avenue, reported to the police that while he was behind his counter late Saturday afternoon, a man entered the store and, handing him a number of one dol-lar bills, asked for two ten-dollar bills in exchange.

Mr. Stevens accommodated the man evidence of any one given in the Grand Jury room. I have not prepared a written decision, but make this statement now as it is time I did so."

The court-room was crowded at the time the Judge announced his decision, and much surprise was expressed as to its peculiar nature.

There were some who had contended that if the Judge granted permission to inspect the minutes at all, everything would be given out, even to the side remerks of the Assistant District, attor.

And acted in a perfectly proper manner, be explained, "on the 6th of fanuary, 1892, I was received by spirit the spirit while the stranger stood by Stranger No. 2 entered the store
hurriedly and said he wanted some olntment, and he was evidently very much secited. Mr. Stevens stopped counting the bills and turned to wait on Stranger
hurriedly and said he wanted some olntment, and he was evidently very much secited. Mr. Stevens stopped counting the will avene to wait on Stranger hurriedly and said he wanted some olntment, and he was evidently very much secited. Mr. Stevens stopped counting
the bills and turned to wait on Stranger hour dispersence.

Herry Cassidy, fifty-nine years of age, of 18 North Portland avenue, Prooklyn, died at the Homoeopathic Hospital this would be given out, even to the side remerks of the Assistant proper minutes at all, everything would be given out, even to the side remerks of the Assistant proper manner

And after handing out $20 began to count the small bills while the stranger stood by Stranger No. 2 entered the store hurriedly and said he wanted some olitment, and the vante department the small bills will the stranger stood by Stranger No. 2 entered the store
hurriedly and said he wanted some olit, we all the Hueband May Be Tried on the fand after handing out $20 began to count the small bills will the stranger stood hurriedly and said he wanted some olity.

YONKERS, N. Y., July 17.—Coroner mon its proper manner
hurriedly and said he wanted some olity.
Stranger No. 2 when he turned around again both men had dis which will now be changed to a more serious one.

Casaidy, in his ante-mortem statement to Coroner Kene, of Brooklyn, said that last Thursday evening he was sitting on his doorstep when Hegerdon and O'Brien came downstairs. The men, he said, provoked a quarrel with him, and a scuffe then ensued.

Both men punched Casaidy in the face and then threw him down the front steps to the sidewalk. Cassidy sustained a fracture of the hip and internal injuries from which he died.

Testerday Armill was dealing in watermelons, and when Peter Messina, who was passing, remarked scornfully that the fruit was no good, Armill took injuries from which he died.

Brooklyn Churches Consolidated.

MANY ELEVATORS STOPPED.

New York Steam Company's Pipe Cut in Laying a Sewer.

In putting in a new sewer on William street, between Cedar and Pine, this money. boran Dodge, eighty-nine years old, of Gun morning, the Department of Public Hill Road, Williambridge, was found dead on ber doorstep. She went on the porch in the evening to get some air, and it is supposed she died from the heat.

Soldier Boys in Camp Suffer from the contract of the New York Steam Company that supplies power for elevators in that locality. Many of the downtown elevators. therefore came to a sudden stop this circulated about Brooklyn this morning Newark avenue, Jersey City, reported in connection with the suit to be to the police of the Second Precinct, nounced that he would grant Mayor lyn, at 12.35 o'clock this morning after not so to the Chicago Fair, but would brought by Gen. C. T. Christensen and Brooklyn, at 1.20 o'clock this morning Mr. White against the Inebriates' Home that while he and Joseph F. Dill, of Mr. Cadley was first taken ill about that reason, was contradicted by her at at Fort Hamilton to recover $627,000 of Twenty-second street, New York, were excise funds paid to the Institution, on their way to Jersey City last night which promises to develop into another the latter fell off the stern of the Annex sensational scandal unless the proceed- boat and was drowned.

CHIEF CLERK CADLEY DEAD. MRS. BEECHER IS NOT POOR. MORE RUMORS OF SCANDAL FELL OFF AN ANNEX BOAT

Brooklyn Supervisors Lose an But She Doesn't Care to Be Im- Who Got the Money Given to Dill Was Seated on the Rail and the Inebriates' Home? Lost His Balance.

King in New Utrocht.

> money has gone. The managers of the night at his house in Jersey City. Institution have refused from time to time to comply with the request of the municipal authorities by making a remained on the after deck to get the and keeps his horses in the stables of the institution.

From this fact the home has always been regarded as a political institution.

The keepers have never made any pretense of preventing inmates from escaping if they so desired. Time and again various police justices have sent men back who have escaped any number of times.

At one time Ferguson joined forces with John Y. McKane, and flopped over to the Republican side of the political arena, but he was soon brought to his senses by a threat from Mr. McLaughlin to have the 15 per cent. of the excise money discontinued.

Supervisor Ferguson recognized the power and came back to the fold.

A bill was introduced in the Legislature to have the 15 per cent. money withdrawn, but it was defeated. Brooklyn has paid the institution $6,000 a year.

Supervisor Ferguson has such suprementation in New Utracht that the resi-

Supervisor Ferguson has such supreme power in New Utrecht that the residents have been forced to pay over $12 per capita for street lighting by a contract with the gas company which the Supervisor kept secret for five years.

In opposition to the people Ferguson, they say, drew up a contract by which the company placed gas lamps all over the fields which environ the town. Cows graze by gaslight.

graze by gnalight.

The matter of breaking the contract is now before the courts.

MRS. MONAHAN'S DEATH.

O'Brien are now locked up in the Raymond Street Jail, where they were committed by Justice Haggeriy to await the result of Cassidy's linjuries.

Both men are charged with assault, which will now be changed to a more serious one.

Casidy, in his ante-mortem statement to Coroner Kene, of Brooklyn, said that last Thursday evening he was sitting on his doorstep when Regerdon and O'Brien are now locked up in the Raymond Street Jail, where they were commond Street Jail, where they were held for trial in Jefferson Monaham is held to await the result of the Coroner's inquest. Coroner Mitof the Coroner's inquest. Coroner Mitmean to kill her.

Monaham is held to await the result of the Coroner's inquest. Coroner Mitmean to kill her.

Monaham is held to await the result of the Coroner's inquest.
Oroner's inquest.

Saturday the two gained an entrance was brought about without premeditatit ast Thursday evening he was sitthat last Thursday evening he was sitthat last Thursday evening he was sitthe limits and the Coroner single the

WILL GET NO VACATION.

Brennan's Street Cleaners Hear the Corporation Counsel's Decision.

There are rumors of discontent to-day nong the employees of the Street-Clean Moria During a Diaputa.

The Brooklyn police are looking for Joseph Horona, an Italian bootblack, twenty-three years of age, of 30 Main street, who stabbed Michael Moria, aged Some of the drivers statical the rumor a few days ago that according to a city ordinance, which had never been repealed, the employees of the Department were entitled to a vacation.

They sent a delegation to see the Street-Cleaning Commissioner about it, and he referred the matter to the Corporation, Counsel, who decided against the vacation proposal. tion proposal.

This will save the Department some Soldier Boys in Camp Suffer from the Heat.

STATE CAMP, PEERSKILL, N. Y.

Not Come to the Surface.

Edward Ayres, of Warren street and Conn., to a cellar full of coal or a year's Ayres and Dill had been visiting friends in Brooklyn, and Dill accepted Taxpayers are asking where all this his friend's invitation to remain over The two men boarded the Annex boat.

municipal authorities by making a statement of disbursements.

Their position in this respect became so stubborn that Mayor Boody last Winter absolutely refused to grant the Home the usual 15 per cent. of the excise funds this year.

The Mayor took a firm stand in the matter, but suddenly, for some unknown reason, the question was dropped, and nothing more heard of it until recently, when the boat was about fifty feet from the Brooklyn silp Dill lost his balance and tumbled over backwards into the water.

The boat was stopped and a skiff, manned by two deckhands, lowered. They searched around the spot where Dill was supposed to have fallen over for an hour and a half, but they falled to find any trace of the missing man. Dill was about fifty feet water.

The boat was about fifty feet water.

The boat was stopped and a skiff, manned by two deckhands, lowered. They searched around the provide from the Brooklyn silp Dill lost his balance and tumbled over backwards into the water.

They searched around the provide from the Brooklyn silp Dill lost his balance and tumbled over backwards into the water.

They searched around the provide from the Brooklyn silp Dill lost his balance and tumbled over backwards into the water.

They searched around the spot where Dill was supposed to have fallen over for an hour and a half, but they failed to find any trace of the missing man.

Dill was about fifty feet water.

The boat was stopped and a skiff, manned by two deckhands, lowered.

They searched around the spot where Dill was supposed to have fallen over or an anticolour the water.

They searched around the spot where Dill was supposed to have fallen over or an anticolour the water.

MR. DICK'S JANITOR HELD.

The Extent of the Prisoner's Thieving Not Yet Fully Known.

Rudolph Woebberking, the janitor who pawned nearly all the portable property in the houses of J. H. and William Dick, the wealthy sugar refiners, was held to await the action of the Grand Jury to-day by Justice Goetting in the Lee Avenue Court

Grand Jury to-day by Justice Goetting in the Lee Avenue Court
William Dick was in court this morning, and explained that he did not know how much he was out. His wife and several other members of the family are at present going over the two houses endeavoring to gain an accurate idea of the extent of the janitor's alleged stealings.

Woebberking seemed much cast down when arraigned at the bar. He endeavored to speak to Mr. Dick, but the latter took no notice of the man who for four took no notice of the man who for four took no notice of the man who for four took no notice of the man who for four took no notice of the man who for four took no notice of the man who for four took no notice of the man who for four took no notice of the man who for four took no notice of the man who for four took no notice of the man who for four took no notice of the man who for four took no notice of the man who for four took no notice of the man who for four the latter took no notice of the man who for four the latter to the latter to the latter to the man who for four the latter to the latter t of the extent of the janitor's alleged stealings.
Woebberking seemed much cast down when arraigned at the bar. He endeavored to speak to Mr. Dick, but the latter took no notice of the man who for four years he regarded as a faithful servant. Woebberking admitted having pawned the property he was placed to guard, but he pleaded in extenuation that he meant to put it back.

After the case had been disposed of the prisoner's wife, who had a little baby in her arms, went on her kines before Mr. Dick and begged him not to prosecute her husband. The sugar reprosecute her husband. The sugar refiner refused to make any promises and quickly left the court.

BAY RIDGE ROAD ILLEGAL

After Working on Plans for a Year This Report is Made.

Mayor Boody, of Brooklyn, this morn ing received a report from the Commis-sioners appointed to supervise the coning received a report from the Commissioners appointed to supervise the construction of the proposed Bay Ridge shore road along the river front of Brooklyn, in which the Commissioners say that they find that the law providing for the project is unconstitutional, and they therefore cannot proceed until the Legislature comes to their assistance.

The Commissioners are Messrs. Kenselve of common knowledge that although the size of common knowledge that a ance.

The Commissioners are Messrs. Kennedy, Brower, Brown, Condon and Gen.
Woodward. They have been working on nedy, Brower, Brown, Condon and Gen. Woodward. They have been working on the plans and dafting a report for over street, occupied by Brockman & Levy as a clothing factory, and sole twenty-four vests, valued at $40.

The men put them on and started to walk away. While they were peasing through Washington Square, the attention of Detectives Hanlon and Glihooley, of the Mercer street station, was attracted by the evident unnatural fat which protruded from under the costs of the two men.

It did not harmonize with the otherwise slim appearance of the two young fellows, who started to run. The detectives gave chase and soon captured their men.

their men.

Duffy confessed, and in his possession were found pawntickets representing a fine coat and vest, said to have beer stolen from an uptown hotel.

ANTHONY J. DREXEL'S REMAINS Expected on the Katser Withelm II

from Bremen To-Morrow. The remains of Anthony J. Drexel. the senior member of the firm of Drexel. Morgan & Co., are expected to arrive Morgan & Co., are expected to arrive here to-morrow on the North German Lloyd steamer Kalser Wilhelm II. from Bremen.

Mr. Drexel died at Carisbad on June 10. The remains will be taken to Philadelphia in a special train.

At Drexel Morgan & Co.'s office to-day a flag hung at half misst and the great iron deers of the banking huise were only partly open. Business, however, was conducted.

Rent Roll.

Ownership of Cottages Discussed in Supplementary Proceedings.

The inquiry in supplementary proceedings into the financial status of Rev Dr. Daniel C. Potter, of the Baptist faculty of running the church and all its affairs and of buying all sorts of things from milk for the children in his Children's Home at Shiffan Point, rent for his Young Woman's Boarding House in Eleventh street without pay ing, was continued at the office of Read, Hatting & Wintern, in Temple Court to-day.

This is only one of several proceedings of the kind brought by people who have obtained judgments for various amounts sgainst Dr. Potter. It was in the case of Hencken & Willenbrock, the coal merchants, who want to know why the $33.64 for coal furnished to the Young

"No, I don't. I say Potter'—that's good enough for me."

"How about that Summer Home for Children at the Point?"

"Potter runs that in one of the cottages. I don't know how much he gets out of that, but he charges a good, fai board rate.

John P. Elder, the young lawyer who with his brother, lives in the much disputed 'third flat' at the Parish Home, is? Second avenue, with Rev. Mr. Putnam, was also sworn in the proceedings. He told about a fine yacht, the Sumshine, imported by Rev. Dr. Potter, and that the doctor transferred the yacht for it to a friend, John Boyd, of Newark, N. I.

and got the rent
To wind up, the lawyer asked: "What is Dr. Potter's reputation for truth and Thomas Whelan's Ungratefulness Coars Fim #5.

Thomas Whelan, twenty-one years old of 67 Cherry street, was fined $5 in Resex Market Court to-day for attempting to fight a policeman who rescued him from drowning.

The members of the Catharine Market Association with their friends, went on an excursion vesterday, returning about 11 30 P. M. Among the excursionists was 11.30 P. M. Among the excursionists was Whelan, who got very drunk on the return rip and when the steambart reached pier 31. East River, foot of Market street, he walked overhoard.

Policemen Sheehan, of the Madison street station, jumped in and succeeded in rescuing him. When Whelan was brought up on the pier he wanted in fight his rescuer, and another policeman arrested him.

MME. PURTER'S EXAMINATION. Charged with Shooting Mrs. Sutherland in Sixth Avenue. The examination of Mme. Emma Por ter, the fortune-teller, who is accused of having shot Mrs. Mary Sutherland in Street Court, Brockirs, this morning, on the having anot airs. Many Sutherland in the charge of knocking Joh; Whalen of 5 Hicks the latter's house. In Sixth avenue, on streat, into in-enablity the morning a cuit July 7, is set down for this afternoon in July 7, whalen was contined in the Long Island College Hospital for five day. Mrs. Sutherland was only slightly injured, and was discharged from St. Vincent's Hospital the day after the shooting.

> Bella Daley Said to Pe Issane, Bella Daley, aged thirty, a widow, with a twenty-month old baby in her arms, was

Wire women Brond-SEL renn take

REV. DR. POTTER'S FINANCES. NEW JERSEY NEWS

SHE DIED OF HYDROPHOBIA, ANOTHER LINEMAN KILLED.

Mouth and Barked Like a Dog.

Tabernacie, who seems to have a happy Horrible Suffering of a Popular Re Wore Gloves, but They Were Asbury Park Girl.

> ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 17 .- Miss Lizzie Byram, the nineteen-year-old this morning in Jersey City. This time daughter of A. J. Byram, a well-known the victim was Daniel Leary, twenty-and prominent resident of Asbury Park, seven years old, a married man, who died this morning of hydrophobia at her lived with his wife at 157 Eighth street. home, on Fourth avenue. For twenty- He was employed by the Jersey City four hours before her death she had Electric Light Company, which is erectbeen in terrible convulsions, frothing at ing new poles along Coles street and the mouth, snapping and barking at Newark avenue. every one who came near her.

Miss Byram was scratched on the small black-and-tan dog, which had nect some old with new wires. been the pet of the household for some time. The scratch was very slight, and

EX-GOV. PRICE IN COURT. Lower Ball Refused and Ordered to Appear Every Day. Ex-Gov. Rodman T. Price, who has been in the custody of the Bergen County Sheriff for several weeks, morning appeared before Chancellor Mc-Gill, in Jersey City, accompanied

Mr. Price, who is a white-haired old man, seventy-three years of age, was arrested some weeks ago in contempt proceedings brought against him by Anna M. Forest as executrix of the estate of Ex-Gov. Price many years ago had the management of the Forest estate, and, it is alleged that a large sum of with the Register of Essex County by the Montelair Gas and Water Comercy. The mortgage covers the plant, real estate and franchise of the Company, and is given to secure a loan of $25,000.

James A. Dusenbury, Secretary of the Newark Gasiight Company, is the mortgages. Broken 100 ax 10 The mortgage covers the plant, real WANT EXPLICIT INSTRUCTIONS. Architects for the New City Hall in the Dark.

Architects who are competing for plans for the new City Hall have asked the Municipal Building Commission for Chester Acuthamaton July 9, more explicit instructions on certain base of Netranka, Glasgow July 7. points. A meeting of the Commission to prepare answers to the questions has been called for to-morrow. Tuesday will be a busy day for the Mayor and other city officials composing the various boards. The Sinking Fund Commission, the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, the Board of Electrical Control and possibly one other board will also meet.

Semmerer's Body Recovered. The body of Charles Sommerer, aged fifteen, who was drowned last night at Tutrty-lourth street and North River by failing out of a rowboas, was recovered this morning. Som-merer lived at 404 West Thirty - seventh atreet.

Lizzle Byram Frothed at the Daniel Leary Gets a Fatal Shock in Jersey City.

Worm and Wet.

Another lineman met a horrible death

About 8.30 this morning Leary second. ed a pole at that location and got out hand during the latter part of April by on one of the arms of the pole to con-

He had gloves on, and as he caught small black-and-tan dog, which had gloves on, and as he caught with the pet of the household for some time. The accratch was very slight, and but the term of the pet of the household for some time. The accratch was very slight, and but the term of the task of the pet of the household for some time. The accratch was very slight, and but the task of the pet of the household for some time. The accratch was very slight, and but the task of the pet of the household for some time. The accratch was very slight, and but the task of the pet o him for some time, but ward deed at 11 o'clock.

Another story of the case is that Ward was standing in the middle of the street, between a street car and a farin wagon and that he was crushed, but managed to crawl to the street where he was found. This story is told by Balcon-Keeper Dabelstein and Wheelwright Peters, who say they saw the accident.

The story is being investigated.

RUNAWAY AT LONG BRANCH. Stage Horse Collides with a Telegraph Pole and Is Killed. LONG BRANCH, N. J., July 17 .- While team of horses attached to a stage be to proprietor Meares of the Scarboro Hotel was waiting at the station for the arrival the New York train late last night, they took tright and ran away. When near the Scarboro Hosel, one of the horses ran bead first into a Telegraph pole, which threw him ten feet away breaking his back and doing considerable damage to the

The burse had to be killed,

RECEIVER VAN WINKLE NAMED. To Take Charge of the Riverside Bridge and Iron Works. PATERSON, N. J., July 171-Chan McGill has appointed J. A. Van Winkle receiver of the Riverside Bridge and Iron Works. The assets of the Company are $50,0 000.

The officers of the concern say thay can pervery dollar of their indebtedness. The company has been regarded as one of the most prosperous in New Jersey.

SHIPPING NEWS. ALWANAC FOR TO-BAY.

LAW WATER TO-BAR

PORT OF NEW YORK.

and that she had to teach school to take care of herself and children.

Mr. Parker said that the $20,000 ball money and $40,000 added to it would not pay back all the defendant owes the estate. He strongly opposed the bail bond being reduced.

Chancellor McGill refused to reduce the bail, and ordered ex-Gov. Price to appear in court from day to day until the case was settled.

GAS AND WATER CO. MORTGAGED.

A Loan of $25,000 Made to the Montolair Corperation.

NEWARK, N. J., July 17.—A mortgage of $25,000 was filed this morning with the Register of Essex Counts by ARRIVED.

OUTGOING STRAMERS. TO SAIL TO-MORROW.

INCOMING STRAMERA

Pthicpia, Glasgow July 5, Amsterdam, Enterdam July 5, R. vie, Livergooi July 7, Dresden, Bramen July 5, Raiser Ullione II., Bramen July 8, Stratoza, Bramen July 18, Stratoza, Bramen July 18, Stratoza, Bramen July 18, DUE TO-MORROW.

POREIGN PORTA

IBY CABLE. 1 ABRIVED. QUEENSTOWN, July 17,—Arrived 7 A. M. steamer Lord Georgh, Capt. Urquhars, from Philadelphis for Liverpool.

AVON WOUTH, July 17.—Arrived July 18, steamer Stellis, Capt. Sechetts, from Montrest.

BEEMEN, July 17.—Arrived July 18, steamer Laughton, Capt. Moon, from New York via South. B. E. P. Inly 11. Steamer Ribe. Capt. Von Gossel, from New York via Southempton as P.A. M. IONDON, duly II. Pagent Scrills at 6.5 of M. steamer Berlin, Capt. Watkies, New York for Bouthempton.

Weather Porecast. Forecast for thirty-six hours ending 8 P.M.

Tuesday. Generally fair, with conditions Growler Game Fined.

Growler Game Fined.

Five young hoodiums were fined & each in growler "and singling botsterously in the back yard of 144 Cherry street last hight.

Five hoose read for thinder showers; stationary temperature to-day; slightly cooler during Thesatay, winds becoming southwesterly. The following record shows the changes in the temperature during the morning hours, as indicated by the thermometer at Perry's Pharmacy:

3. M.....TI 6. M....TI 9. M. 621 13. M....

Sense Thief Held.

Thomas McCarthy, well known to Brooklyn politics as seek thic, was held for the politics as seek there. There is no the politics as seek there are the politic as seek there. There is no the politics as seek there are the politic as a seek there are the politic and th arraigned before Justice Hogan in the Yorkville Police Court this morning and commitwilliam Holland, a young ther twenty-two ted for examination into her sanity. Her years of age, was held for trial in the Jeffer-son Market Court to-day. He was arrested yesterday upon his release from the Pentten-than you a warrant charging him with lar-shown symptoms of dementia.